Volleyball, Wrestling; spirits untarnished

Among this year's variety of indoor sports were those of Volleyball and Wrestling. Even though this year didn't bring them many victories, they did their best.

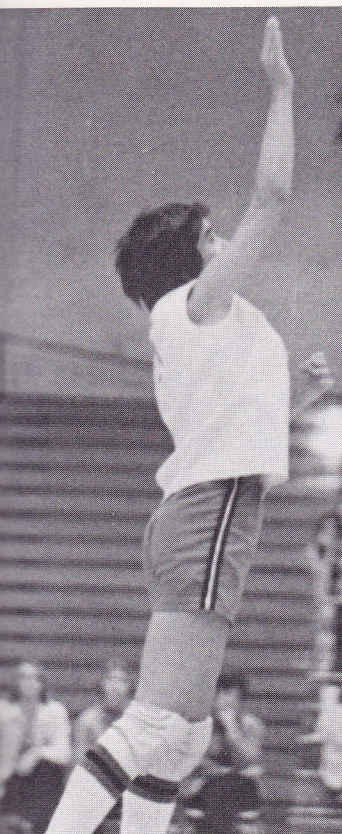

Mike Eggert, Jim Massey, Shawn Clarey, and Dick Cordes were a few of the many outstanding athletes that led the Wrestling team this year. Coach Gus Barbes and Assistant Coaches John Drews and Ray Barnett helped the team, but they could only scratch up a few victories during the season.

The grapplers had a successful team in many ways. Most of the team had wins sometime throughout the season, hopefully raising hopes for a fine season next year. Coach Barbes, who took over the head coaching position from Ron White this year, had many bright spots this season.

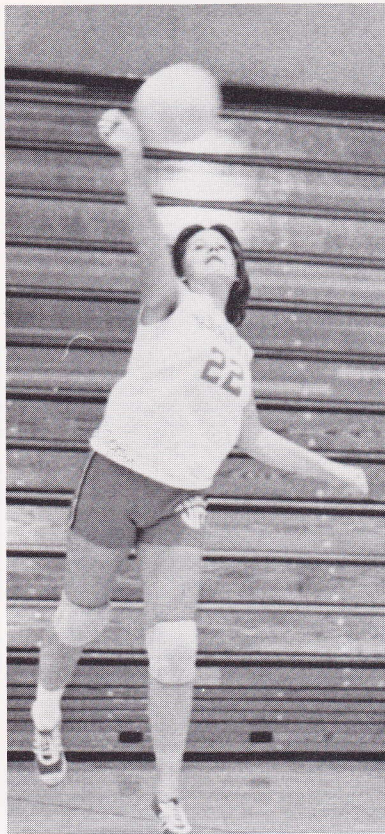

Volleyball was filled with many exciting moments in the 75-76 season. Beating Mayo, last year's region representative, was the biggest thrill. In 3 sets, all close, the Rocket girls downed Mayo to revenge them of the year before.

Although seniors Mary Mahoney, Sheryl Stessman, Cindy Bailey and Nancy Rentz will be gone next year, the future is bright. Coach Roy Schroeder led the girls this year, after Ann Perry resigned.

Even though the girls beat Mayo earlier, Mayo beat them when it counted, in tournaments. However, the season did have many satisfying times for the JM volleyballers. The bumpers, setters, and spikers of the Rocket girls had a fine season. It was the hard work put into dedication, strength, and pride that made this year's Volleyball a sport to remember.
